

Jens, Fine Art Curriculum 2015-2016

ejens@njuhsd.com

August/September- Roman Art and Architecture

Architecture History: Greek or Roman?

Architecture History: Coliseum

Roman Empire

Watch Titus (rated R)

Classical drawing- light and shadow

Roman Graffiti – Modern Graffiti

Bierenbroodspot: architecture detail and public drawing

September/October- Medieval, Renaissance and Baroque Studies

Architecture history: Gothic Churches

Medieval, Renaissance art

Celtic knotwork

Illuminated manuscript initials

Rob Scholte in Nagasaki

Leonardo Da Vinci

Brush names and uses

Hieronymus Bosch Triptych Halloween painting

Cityscapes- pen and ink (lack of perspective)

Perspective Drawing Intro 1-2-3 point

Baroque dramatic light charcoal portraits

November/December- Post Impressionism

Color theory

Japanese Brush Painting

Calligraphy

The Brothers Van Gogh

Seurat pointillism painting

Illustrated Haiku painting

January/February – Art Nouveau, Modernism and the Weimar Republic

Architecture History: Art Nouveau

Russian Avant Garde posters

Gustav Klimt/Japanese pattern portraits

DADA object

Toulouse-Lautrec water color poster ad

George Grosz caricatures

Maus comic book illustration

March/April- The Space Age and 1960's Pop Art

Architecture history: Google design

Alternative canvas bring your own object

Tintin- comics and racism

Lichtenstein 3 pop styles figures

POP collage mural

Jay DeFeo- objects in white

April/May- New Surrealism and Street Art

Mural Art in the public space

Art/Terrorism

NPR Haitian artists project

AMIME albumcovers

Zentangle sketchbook assignments

Student websites development- Google

Final projects and sketchbooks due

AP portfolios due Early May