

Bear River High School

Executive Council Officer/Leadership Code of Ethics

As a leader of Bear River High School, you must recognize that you are a role model. You will use your role as a leader to help promote our school's core values. The behaviors below outline the expectation for officer conduct, however this list is not all-inclusive. Any violation of this code, or any behavior unbecoming of a member of the Executive Council/Leadership member (as defined by the Activities Director), will result in immediate removal from office and/or class.

By agreeing to the Code of Ethics using the "Executive Council Application Form" and "Leadership Application Form" (linked in the "Applicant Information" document), you are stating the following:

I pledge to show respect for myself and others. I recognize that all people have innate worth, and my actions uphold that dignity; I treat myself, and others with kindness, compassion, and dignity.

I will...

- Identify my gifts and talents using them to the best of my ability
- Recognize I can rely on others when problems arise
- Act with courtesy and kindness
- Defend those who are being bullied or harassed
- Go out of my way to be kind to all
- Adhere to the dress code

I will not...

- Take part in any behaviors that harm my body
- Drive carelessly or recklessly
- Use inappropriate language
- Associate myself with individuals or activities that reflect poorly on me, the program or the school
- Be rude in any situation
- Judge others
- Gossip or bully
- Make mean or hurtful comments

I pledge to demonstrate responsibility. I am conscientious and dependable.

I will...

- Recognize that I am a role model at all times
- Meet all deadlines
- Motivate others to my full ability
- Execute my work as well as I possibly can
- Know my limits and be aware of them at all times
- Continue to keep trying and working towards the set goal
- Seek help when needed
- Give chances to those who want to contribute
- Organize projects to support my school
- Participate in long-term service

I will not...

- Arrive to meetings late
- Turn in assignments after the deadline
- Back down or give up when an assignment becomes difficult
- Take on more than I and my limits can handle
- Settle for the bare minimum doing the least amount of work possible

I pledge to act with integrity. I live in a way that is consistent with my values, so others can trust me.

I will...

- Be honest about who I am and what I believe in so others may see who I truly am
- Complete my own work
- Refuse to cheat
- Say "No" to any peer that pressures me to do something I do not believe, such as drinking and drugs
- Remove myself from every situation with illegal, unethical, or immoral behaviors
- Respect others and their values
- Refuse to compromise the values set by Bear River High School

I will not...

- Violate my values and beliefs thinking others will be more fond of me
- Lie or misrepresent the truth
- Steal
- Cheat, which includes: copying or allowing others to copy homework, disclosing test contents to later classes, and plagiarism
- Succumb to peer pressure
- Pretend to be someone I am not