- I will pay attention to the lesson and will work with the students, as instructed by the teacher, in order to increase learning. (For ex. if the teacher asks me to take notes and post my notes for student reference, I will complete the task).
- I will show students through my actions and words that learning is important to me and encourage students to do their best.
- I will work to support learning, but I will not assist students in cheating by providing them with answers or an unfair advantage.
- I will seek assistance from my supervising teacher when I have a concern or if I am unsure of how to work with a particular student.
